WEDNESDAY, JULY 26, 1854.

Legislative Council.

21st July 1854.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India on the 21st July 1854, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XV. OF 1854.

An Act to facilitate the proceedings of the Commissioners appointed to inquire into certain matters connected with the position of Sir James Brooke, Her Majesty's Commissioner and Consul General in Borneo.

Whereas the Governor General of India in Council has, by a Commission bearing date the seventh day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand Eight hundred and Fifty-four, nominated and appointed Charles Robert Prinsep, Esq., Barrister-at-Law and Advocate-General of Fort William in Bengal, and the Hon'ble Humphrey Bohun Devereux, in the Civil Service of the East India Company on their Bengal Establishment, to inquire into certain matters connected with and arising out of the position of Sir James Brooke, Her Majesty's Commissioner and Consul General in Borneo; and whereas it is expedient that the Commissioners aforesaid should be invested with certain legal powers within the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company, It is enacted as follows :

1. Each of the said Commissioners shall, before beginning to act in the execution of the Commission aforesaid, take and subscribe, before one of the Judges of Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature, at Fort William in Bengal, the following oath, that is to say :—

" I do swear, that I will truly and faithfully, according to the best of my knowledge and judgment, execute the powers and trusts vested in me by the Governor General of India in Council, by a Commission bearing date the Seventh day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand Eight hundred and Fifty-four, and by Act No. XV. of 1854. So help me God."

And the Judge of the Supreme Court, before whom such oath shall be taken, shall transmit the same to the Secretary to the Government of India in the Foreign Department, to be filed among the records of his office.

2. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners aforesaid, by a summons under their hands, or under the hand of either of them, to require the attendance before them, at a time and place to be mentioned in such summons, of any person or persons whomsoever, residing or being within the Jurisdiction of the Court of Judicature of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca, whose evidence shall, in the judgment of the Commissioners aforesaid, be material to any of the matters directed by the Governor General of India in Council to be enquired of, and to require the person or persons so summoned to bring and produce before them all such books, papers, deeds and writings, as to them, the said Commissioners, shall appear necessary for arriving at the truth of the matters directed to be enquired into by the said Commissioners, all which persons shall accordingly attend the said Commissioners and shall produce such books, papers, deeds and writings as shall be required of them and shall be in their custody and control, or in the custody and control of any one of them, according to the tenor of the summons. Provided always that no person shall be compellable to answer any question or to produce any book, paper, deed or writing, the answer to which, or the production of which, may criminate or tend to criminate such person, or to expose such person to any pains or penalties.

3. And whereas it may appear to the Commissioners aforesaid desirable to examine as witnesses several persons touching the matters directed to be enquired into, the evidence of which persons may tend to expose them to penal consequences, every person who shall be examined as a witness and give evidence before the Commissioners aforesaid touching the matters in question, and who shall, upon such examination, make a true discovery to the best of his knowledge touching all matters to which he or she shall be so examined, shall be freed from all penal actions, forfeitures, punishments, disabilities and incapacities and all criminal prosecutions to which he or she may have been, or may become, liable or subject within any part of the said territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company for any thing done by such person in respect of any acts relating to which he shall be examined. Provided that where any witness shall be so examined as aforesaid, such witness shall not be indemnified under this Act, unless or until he or she shall receive from the Commissioners aforesaid, under their hands, a certificate in writing, stating that such witness has upon his or her examination made a true disclosure touching all matters to which he or she has been so examined.

4. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners aforesaid, or one of them, to administer an oath, or in the case of persons allowed by law to make affirmation instead of taking an oath, an affirmation, in such form as to them, the said Commissioners, shall seem fit, to all persons who shall be examined before them touching the matters directed, or which may be directed to be enquired into, by them as aforesaid.

5. If any person, upon whom any such summons shall be served by the delivery thereof to him or her, or by the leaving thereof at his or her usual place of abode, being a person subject to the Court of Judicature of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore or Malacca, shall, without reasonable cause (to be allowed by the Commissioners aforesaid,) fail to appear before them at the time and place mentioned in the summons, or shall refuse to be sworn or to make affirmation (as the case may be,) or shall not make answer to such questions as shall be put to him or her touching the matters directed, or which may hereafter be directed, to be enquired into by the Commissioners aforesaid, or shall refuse or fail, without reasonable cause (to be allowed by the Commissioners aforesaid,) to produce and show to the said Commissioners any such paper, book, deed or writing being in their possession or under their control, as to the Commissioners aforesaid shall appear necessary for arriving at the truth of the matters directed to be inquired into by them, the Commissioners aforesaid shall have the same powers in all respects touching any such person so failing to appear, or refusing to be sworn or to make affirmation, or not answering such questions as shall be put to him or her, or refusing to produce and show any such book, paper, deed, or writing as aforesaid, as the Court of Judicature of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca may by law exercise against any person for making default of appearance, or for refusing to be sworn or to give evidence on any issue joined in any action depending in such Court.

6. Every person, who, upon examination upon oath, or affirmation before the Commissioners aforesaid, shall wilfully give false evidence, shall be liable to the pains and penalties of perjury.

7. No action shall be brought against the Commissioners aforesaid, or any other person or persons whomsoever, for anything done in the execution of this Act, unless such action shall be brought within six calendar months next after the doing of such thing.

8. In case of the death or resignation of either of the said Commissioners, or in the event of either of them becoming incapable of acting, it shall be lawful for the other Commissioner to act alone; and every part of this Act shall be deemed to apply to such Commissioner as if he alone had been mentioned herein.

powers of attorney is often attended with difficulty and expense, where they are executed at places remote from that of trial, and whereas the proof of the despatch of letters is often attained with much difficulty, and the law of evidence may with advantage be altered and rendered less strict as to such matters, it is hereby enacted that any power of attorney, which has been executed at a place distant more than 100 miles from the place wherein the action, suit or proceeding is depending, may be proved by the production of it, without further proof, where it purports, on the face of it, to have been executed before a notary public, or any Court, Judge, or other public Officer, and such power of attorney may, where it does not purport, on the face of it, to have been so executed, be proved by producing it, and proving that it has been acted on, or remitted to be acted on by competent authority, and by proving the instructions as to it.

In all the cases aforesaid, the witness or witnesses must depose that he or they believes or believe the instrument to be genuine and authorized, and that it has not been revoked.

43. Whenever it is proved that a letter-book despatched according to the usual practice, to the best of the knowledge and belief of the witness, having reasonable ground for forming that belief, the Court may presume the despatch of that letter according to the usual course of business.

44. Any peon's-book or other book purporting to contain a receipt of a letter, and proved to have been kept as a book for marking the receipt of letters, shall also be sufficient prima facie proof that such letter was received.

45. If the letter be described in such book, it shall be also prima facie proof of the identity of the letter.

46. If the book do not describe the letter, still the identity of the letter may be inferred from circumstances.

47. And whereas by the Act XV. of 1852, Section 6, a power was given in any action or other legal proceeding pending in any of Her Majesty's said Supreme Courts, for such Court, and each of the Judges thereof respectively, on application for such purpose by either of the litigants, to compel the opposite party to allow the party making the application to inspect all documents in the custody of, or under the control of such opposite party, relating to such action or other legal proceeding, and if necessary to take examined copies of the same, or to procure the same to be duly stamped in all cases in which, previous to the passing of that Act, a discovery might have been obtained by filing a Bill, or by any other proceeding in a Court of Equity, at the instance of the party so making application as aforesaid to the said Court or Judge, provided always that every such application should be made as aforesaid before issue joined in any such action, and twenty-one days before the trial or hearing of any other legal proceeding.

48. And whereas the preceding proviso has been found inconvenient, it is therefore hereby repealed, and it shall be lawful for the Court or Judge to grant any such inspection at any time before the trial or hearing, provided a proper case be made out for granting the same, and the application has been made under the circumstances of the case without any unreasonable delay, and in any case where the Court or Judge shall think fit to grant such inspection, such terms may be imposed as to payment of costs or otherwise, as may be expedient and just.

49. And whereas by the 16th Section of the Act VI. of 1854, it is provided that affidavits of particular witnesses, or affidavits as to particular facts or circumstances, may, by consent of the parties, or by leave of the Court obtained upon notice, be used in the hearing of any cause, and the same enactment is limited to proceedings on the Equity side of such Supreme Court; it is therefore enacted that the same shall extend to all Civil actions, suits and proceedings on all sides of the Court.

50. And whereas by the 17th Section of the same Act, it is provided that upon the hearing of any suit depending in any of the said Supreme Courts, whether commenced by Bill or Claim, and also upon the hearing of any motion, petition or other proceeding in any of the said Courts, the Court may, upon the application of any of the parties thereto, or of its own accord, require and enforce the attendance and oral examination before itself of any witness or of any party to the suit, and may also require and enforce the production of any document or documents, and may direct the costs of the attendance and examination of such witness or party to be paid by such of the parties to the suit, or in such manner as it may think fit, and it is desirable to extend this provision to all sides of the Court; it is therefore enacted that the said provisions shall extend to all sides of the Court, but that they shall not authorize or empower the Court to direct the examination of any accused person at the trial for any purpose, but shall extend only to authorize his examination as to collateral matters arising on matter unconnected with the question of his guilt or innocence.

51. And it is further enacted that the 33rd Section of the said Act No. VI. of 1854, which applies only to proof of accounts on the Equity side of the Court, shall extend to and embrace all accounts directed to be taken on any side of the said Court.

52. And whereas it is desirable to extend to this country certain of the provisions of the Act 8 and 9 Victoria, Cap. 113, entitled "An Act to facilitate the admission in evidence of certain official and other documents;" it is therefore enacted that whenever, by any Statute or Act, Regulation or Ordinance now in force, or any Statute or Act to be hereinafter in force, any certificate, certified copy, or other document shall be receivable in evidence of any particular, in any Court of Justice, the same, if it is substantially in the form and purports to be executed in the manner directed by the Statute, Act, Regulation or Ordinance which makes it evidence, shall be prima facie evidence where it is rendered admissible without proof of any seal, stamp, signature, character or authority, which it is directed to have, or from which it is directed to proceed.

53. The provisions in this Act contained shall apply to extend, but not to restrict the law and practice of the Courts of the East India Company or other Courts as to the reception of evidence. In no Court shall the improper admission or rejection of evidence be ground of itself for a new trial or reversal of any decision in any case, if it shall appear to the Court before which such objection is raised, that independently of the evidence admitted and objected to, there was sufficient evidence to justify the decision, or that if the rejected evidence had been received, it ought not to have varied the decision.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Legislative Council.

*Legislative Council,
22nd July 1854.*

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 22nd of July 1854.

4. Every such Judge or public Officer or Commissioner as aforesaid, before he shall receive the acknowledgment by any married woman of any deed to be acknowledged by her, under this Act, shall examine her apart from her husband, touching her knowledge of such deed, and shall ascertain whether she understands its object, and freely and voluntarily consents to the same, and unless she appears to understand its object, and freely and voluntarily to consent to such deed, he shall not permit her to acknowledge the same, and in such case, such deed, so far as relates to the execution thereof by such married woman, shall be void.

5. Every Judge, public Officer or Commissioner, taking such acknowledgment under this Act, shall at the time of taking the same, sign a memorandum to be endorsed on or written at the foot, or in the margin of, such deed, which memorandum shall be to the following effect, viz., "this deed marked ( ) was this day produced before me and acknowledged by therein named, to be her act and deed, previous to which acknowledgment the said was examined by me separately and apart from her husband, touching her knowledge of the contents of the said deed, and her consent thereto and appeared to understand the same, and declared the same to be freely and voluntarily executed by her."

Deed to take effect from date of the acknowledgment.

6. The deed so acknowledged shall take effect from the date of acknowledgment thereof.

7. It shall not be necessary for any person producing a deed so acknowledged in any Court of Justice, to prove the hand-writing or authority of the Judge or other Officer, or the Commissioner taking such acknowledgment, but if such memorandum purports to have been in substance regularly made and signed, the deed shall be presumed to have been duly acknowledged by the party, until the contrary is shown.

8. 9. Nothing in this Act contained shall abridge, extend, or affect the powers of alienation or disposition, which any married woman might have exercised over any property or rights, otherwise than by levying a fine or suffering a recovery, or by joining in one of such assurances before the passing of this Act.

10. Every tenant in tail or owner of an estate in inheritance less than an estate in fee simple, either at law or in equity, in any lands or hereditaments not being under any disability, shall have power to dispose of such lands and hereditaments against all persons whose estates are to take effect after the determination or in defeazance of his own, or to enlarge his said estate into an estate in fee simple absolute by any deed declaring an intention so to dispose of the said lands or hereditaments, or to enlarge his estate therein; and every tenant in tail or person possessed of an estate in inheritance less than an estate in fee simple absolute, who shall be under the disability of coverture, shall have power to dispose of or enlarge her said estate by any deed, declaring her intention so to do, and acknowledged by her before a Judge or other public Officer or a Commissioner under this Act; provided that every disposition under this Section shall be subject to the rights of all persons in respect of estates prior to the estate tail or other estate of inheritance, which is the subject of such disposition and the rights of all other persons, except those against whom such disposition is by this Act authorized to be made.

11. The provisions of the last preceding Section shall, so far as circumstances will admit, apply to money subject to be invested in lands to be settled, so that any person, if the lands were purchased, would have an estate tail therein.

12. In any deed or will executed after this Act comes into operation, and disposing of immoveable property situate in India, wherein contingent estates are limited without the appointment of any trustees to preserve such contingent estates, the same shall be, to all intents and purposes, as effectually protected by the law, as if such trustees had been duly appointed.

13. Any estate or interest in immoveable property, situate in India, whether in possession, remainder or reversion, may, in addition to any other mode of conveyance or release, which is now valid, be conveyed, passed or released, by a simple deed expressing such intention, and with apt words to effect it, whether such deed operate under the Statute of uses or not.

14. No conveyance of any kind shall operate to destroy, impair, or affect any estate or interests which the conveying party has no legal right to destroy, impair or affect, or beyond the extent to which he may impair or affect the same.

15. No release executed after the time when this Act comes into operation shall operate so as to release more than the right of the releasing party, provided that this shall not extend to the release by one or more members less than the whole of any commercial or trading partnership of any debt, claim, or right of action, which it would be within the scope of the ordinary authority of a partner in such firm to release.

16. From the time this Act comes into operation, it shall not be necessary in any deed to be executed after such time, as to immoveable property situate in India, to add words of limitation to heirs, when the intention is to give the absolute interest to a person and his heirs general, but a gift, grant, or other conveyance of immoveable property to, or in favor of any person, shall be taken to give him the entire and absolute interest in the nature of an estate in fee simple, unless such construction is rendered inadmissible by the other contents of the deed; and when in any deed, or will executed as aforesaid, any property is given to a person for life or for other freehold interest, and afterwards in the same deed, or will, is limited to his heirs or heir special, the estates shall not unite, but the limitation to the heirs shall be a limitation of an estate to be taken by the heirs by purchase; and it shall descend as if such estates had united.

17. When any property is sold, the proceeds of which are subject to any trust, the bonâ-fide purchaser of the property shall not in any case be bound to see to the application of the purchase-money to the purposes of the trust.

18. Nothing in this Act contained shall extend to any case to which the English Law is not applicable.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 22nd of July 1854:

A Bill for making better provision for the education of male Minors, subject to the superintendence of the Court of Wards.

1. The general superintendence and control of the education of every male minor, whose property has been or shall be brought under the management of the Court of Wards, in and for any part of the Presidency of Fort William, by virtue of any Act or Regulation which now is or hereafter shall be in force, is hereby vested in the Collector of Revenue, acting under the said Court of Wards in the zillah or district, wherein the principal portion of such minor's estate is situate.

II. It shall be lawful for every Collector of Revenue, in whom the superintendence of the education of any minor is vested by this Act, to direct that such minor shall reside either with or without his guardian at the sudder station of the district, or at any other place either within or beyond the limits of the district, and shall attend, for the purposes of education, such school or college as to the said Collector may seem expedient; and to make such provision as may be necessary for the proper care and suitable maintenance of the said minor whilst attending such school or college.

III. If it shall appear to the Collector inexpedient to place any such minor at a school or college, he shall cause such minor to be educated by a private tutor, properly qualified, either at the family residence of such minor, or at the sudder station or elsewhere, and in that case also the Collector shall have power to determine from time to time the place of residence of such minor, and to make such provision as may be necessary for his proper tuition and maintenance during the period of his education.

IV. All charges and expenses which may be incurred on account of any male minor ward under the provisions of this Act, for college or school fees, or for other charges of tuition or education, or by reason of his residence in any place other than his own home or otherwise, shall be defrayed from the profits of his estate in the same manner as other expenses incurred, under the authority or with the sanction of the Court of Wards.

V. It shall be lawful for the Court of Wards, on the application of a Collector, to remove from office any guardian who shall neglect or refuse to obey, or shall evade compliance with any orders passed, or directions given by such Collector under the provisions of this Act, and to cause a new guardian to be appointed in his place, whether the person so removed shall have been first invested with the guardianship of the minor upon the nomination of a Collector acting under the Court of Wards, or by a testamentary appointment confirmed by the Court of Wards, and if in any such case the guardian to be removed, shall be also the manager of the minor's estate, it shall be lawful for the Court of Wards, at its discretion, either to remove him from both the said offices, or to continue him in that of manager only.

VI. The guardian so removed shall, notwithstanding his removal, continue liable to account to the Collector for his receipts and disbursements during the period of his guardianship; and every guardian appointed in the place of a guardian so removed, shall be chosen in the same way, and shall have the same rights and powers, and be subject to the same responsibilities as persons originally appointed to be guardians of minors by a Collector of Revenue acting under the Court of Wards.

VII. ### Rangoon Post Office Notice.

LETTERS and Newspapers, which should be addressed to RANGOON only, are frequently directed by mistake to Pegu or Burmah, and letters, &c. intended for delivery in Pegu, Prome, Bassien and other places in the Provinces, are in like manner erroneously addressed to "Rangoon, Burmah." The Rangoon Post Master begs to notify that, with such vague directions, this Department is left to find out to which of the Stations such letters should be forwarded, and from want of information, great disappointment is felt when they are despatched to the wrong Station. To obviate this, it is desirable, that parties posting letters in Calcutta or elsewhere, should be careful to direct them to their respective Stations, and to inform their Agents and Correspondents, when leaving one place for another, of their change of address, to ensure letters being directed to the proper Station. A list of places in the Pegu Provinces or in Burmah, and their distance from Rangoon, is annexed below, viz.:

Donabew, .....	40 miles
Pegu, .....	55 "
Sittang, .....	67 "
hoaygyeen, .....	90 "

Letters addressed to public functionaries, whose head-quarters or residence is in Rangoon, should be addressed "Rangoon," instead of Pegu or Burmah; but if intended for delivery at other Stations, should be addressed to those Stations, the word Rangoon to be omitted.

THE LIGHTHOUSE is in N. Lat.  $59^{\circ} 23' 15''$ , and W. Indian Iron.

THE RAILWAY COMPANY have to acknowledge the receipt of several communications with description and specimens of the Iron produced in India, in reply to their advertisement, the object of which was to collect all the data available on the subject before the 1st October next, when it is expected that a qualified practical Iron-viewer will be sent out from England, upon whose report, after personal inspection of the several districts indicated, should it prove favorable, the Indian Iron Company already completely re-organized, and in active operation on the Western Coast of India, will, it is believed, be prepared to despatch the men and Machinery necessary for at once establishing Iron Works on a limited but sufficient scale, upon the most eligible site which shall have been selected, with due regard to the proximity of the Materials and the convenience of cheap communication.

The Railway Company will require all the Iron that can be produced for some years from this source, and request that any parties who may have delayed sending in their information upon the subject, will endeavour to forward it previous to the 1st October, to admit of its being usefully availed of.

ACT NO. XV. OF 1854.

An Act to facilitate the proceedings of the Commissioners appointed to inquire into certain matters connected with the position of Sir James Brooke, Her Majesty's Commissioner and Consul General in Borneo.

Whereas the Governor General of India in Council has, by a Commission bearing date the seventh day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand Eight hundred and Fifty-four, nominated and appointed Charles Robert Prinsep, Esq., Barrister-at-Law and Advocate-General of Fort William in Bengal, and the Hon'ble Humphrey Bohun Devereux, in the Civil Service of the East India Company on their Bengal Establishment, to inquire into certain matters connected with and arising out of the position of Sir James Brooke, Her Majesty's Commissioner and Consul General in Borneo; and whereas it is expedient that the Commissioners aforesaid should be invested with certain legal powers within the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company, It is enacted as follows :

1. Each of the said Commissioners shall, before beginning to act in the execution of the Commission aforesaid, take and subscribe, before one of the Judges of Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature, at Fort William in Bengal, the following oath, that is to say :—

" I do swear, that I will truly and faithfully, according to the best of my knowledge and judgment, execute the powers and trusts vested in me by the Governor General of India in Council, by a Commission bearing date the Seventh day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand Eight hundred and Fifty-four, and by Act No. XV. of 1854. So help me God."

And the Judge of the Supreme Court, before whom such oath shall be taken, shall transmit the same to the Secretary to the Government of India in the Foreign Department, to be filed among the records of his office.

2. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners aforesaid, by a summons under their hands, or under the hand of either of them, to require the attendance before them, at a time and place to be mentioned in such summons, of any person or persons whomsoever, residing or being within the Jurisdiction of the Court of Judicature of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca, whose evidence shall, in the judgment of the Commissioners aforesaid, be material to any of the matters directed by the Governor General of India in Council to be enquired of, and to require the person or persons so summoned to bring and produce before them all such books, papers, deeds and writings, as to them, the said Commissioners, shall appear necessary for arriving at the truth of the matters directed to be enquired into by the said Commissioners, all which persons shall accordingly attend the said Commissioners and shall produce such books, papers, deeds and writings as shall be required of them and shall be in their custody and control, or in the custody and control of any one of them, according to the tenor of the summons. Provided always that no person shall be compellable to answer any question or to produce any book, paper, deed or writing, the answer to which, or the production of which, may criminate or tend to criminate such person, or to expose such person to any pains or penalties.

3. And whereas it may appear to the Commissioners aforesaid desirable to examine as witnesses several persons touching the matters directed to be enquired into, the evidence of which persons may tend to expose them to penal consequences, every person who shall be examined as a witness and give evidence before the Commissioners aforesaid touching the matters in question, and who shall, upon such examination, make a true discovery to the best of his knowledge touching all matters to which he or she shall be so examined, shall be freed from all penal actions, forfeitures, punishments, disabilities and incapacities and all criminal prosecutions to which he or she may have been, or may become, liable or subject within any part of the said territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company for any thing done by such person in respect of any acts relating to which he shall be examined. Provided that where any witness shall be so examined as aforesaid, such witness shall not be indemnified under this Act, unless or until he or she shall receive from the Commissioners aforesaid, under their hands, a certificate in writing, stating that such witness has upon his or her examination made a true disclosure touching all matters to which he or she has been so examined.

4. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners aforesaid, or one of them, to administer an oath, or in the case of persons allowed by law to make affirmation instead of taking an oath, an affirmation, in such form as to them, the said Commissioners, shall seem fit, to all persons who shall be examined before them touching the matters directed, or which may be directed to be enquired into, by them as aforesaid.

5. If any person, upon whom any such summons shall be served by the delivery thereof to him or her, or by the leaving thereof at his or her usual place of abode, being a person subject to the Court of Judicature of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore or Malacca, shall, without reasonable cause (to be allowed by the Commissioners aforesaid,) fail to appear before them at the time and place mentioned in the summons, or shall refuse to be sworn or to make affirmation (as the case may be,) or shall not make answer to such questions as shall be put to him or her touching the matters directed, or which may hereafter be directed, to be enquired into by the Commissioners aforesaid, or shall refuse or fail, without reasonable cause (to be allowed by the Commissioners aforesaid,) to produce and show to the said Commissioners any such paper, book, deed or writing being in their possession or under their control, as to the Commissioners aforesaid shall appear necessary for arriving at the truth of the matters directed to be inquired into by them, the Commissioners aforesaid shall have the same powers in all respects touching any such person so failing to appear, or refusing to be sworn or to make affirmation, or not answering such questions as shall be put to him or her, or refusing to produce and show any such book, paper, deed, or writing as aforesaid, as the Court of Judicature of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca may by law exercise against any person for making default of appearance, or for refusing to be sworn or to give evidence on any issue joined in any action depending in such Court.

6. Every person, who, upon examination upon oath, or affirmation before the Commissioners aforesaid, shall wilfully give false evidence, shall be liable to the pains and penalties of perjury.

7. No action shall be brought against the Commissioners aforesaid, or any other person or persons whomsoever, for anything done in the execution of this Act, unless such action shall be brought within six calendar months next after the doing of such thing.

8. In case of the death or resignation of either of the said Commissioners, or in the event of either of them becoming incapable of acting, it shall be lawful for the other Commissioner to act alone; and every part of this Act shall be deemed to apply to such Commissioner as if he alone had been mentioned herein.

16. The provisions herein as to witnesses shall apply to testimony given by affidavit, or otherwise in writing, as well as to testimony orally delivered.

The provision aforesaid to apply to written testimony.

17. Any such witness giving wilfully false evidence shall be subject to be proceeded against in like manner, and to suffer, if convicted, the same punishment as if he had been sworn and had committed wilful and corrupt perjury. The indictment or charge shall be varied so as to meet the case.

18. Husbands and wives shall be competent witnesses for each other, but this shall not extend to make the wife a witness in an action brought by the husband for damages, for adultery committed by her.

19. Whenever the wife may sue the husband, or the husband the wife, in any civil suit, each may be admitted as a witness in such suit against the other.

20. The Rules of evidence in Her Majesty's Supreme Courts shall be the same as to the matters of Ecclesiastical jurisdiction, as they are on the Plea, Equity and Crown sides of the Courts respectively.

21. One witness, in all cases, except cases of treason, shall be sufficient in law, in any such Court or before any such person, but this provision shall not affect any rule or practice of any Court that requires corroborative evidence in support of the testimony of an accomplice or of a simple witness in a case of perjury, or as to the proof of an admission or otherwise. Provided that this shall not extend to give validity to any instrument to which the attestation of witnesses is necessary.

22. In that class of cases, wherein dying declarations are evidence, they shall be received, if it be proved that the deceased was, at the time of making the declaration, and then thought himself to be, in danger of approaching death, though he still entertained, at the time of making it, hopes of recovery.

23. A party may be allowed to show before any such Court or Judge, that a witness whom he produces has, at the trial or hearing, varied from a previous statement made by him, and has given unexpectedly, at the trial or hearing, evidence different from that which such person expected from him.

24. A witness on cross-examination may, with the consent of such Court or person, be asked as to the contents of a writing not produced, though such writing be in the possession of the party examining, where the object is to test the accuracy or truthfulness of the witness.

25. Where a copy is proved to have been made from an original writing, and appears on its production to have been made by any copying machine, it shall be taken without further proof to be a correct copy.

26. Where an original document is out of the reach of the process of the Court, or is at so great a distance from the Court, that the best evidence of it could not be had without serious expense, it shall be lawful for the Court, on application to it, and on notice to the opposite party at a reasonable time before the hearing, to make an order for the reception of secondary evidence of its execution and contents.

27. An attested document may be proved as if no such attestation had existed, unless it be a document to the validity of which attestation is requisite.

28. The admission of a party to an attested instrument of its execution by himself, shall be as against him sufficient prima facie proof of the due execution of it, though it be an instrument which is required by law to be attested.

29. The books of any person, which are proved to have been regularly kept in the way in which such books usually are, shall be admissible as corroborative, but not as independent proof of the facts which may have been stated therein when such facts become to be proved.

30. In all cases where hearsay evidence, in the shape of an entry in any book, public or private, is admissible in evidence after the death of the party who made it, on the ground of its having been made in the ordinary course of business and without motive to misrepresent, such entry shall be admissible, though the party who made it be not dead, if he is incapable of being produced as a witness to the transaction, and of giving evidence as to it by reason of his subsequent loss of understanding, or where he is at the time of the trial or hearing bond fide and permanently beyond the reach of the process of the Court, or cannot, after diligent search be found.

31. In any case where such entry is admissible, it shall be admissible, although it appear that the party who made it had not himself personal knowledge of the matter to which such entry relates, provided it appear that he acted in making it on the personal knowledge, whether directly conveyed to him or not, of some person whose business it was to do the thing or give the information which the entry records.

32. In all cases where hearsay evidence is received in the shape of a declaration or entry, on the ground that it was made against the interest of the party making it, it shall be admissible in evidence, though the party who made it is alive and is capable of being produced and of giving testimony as a witness.

33. Any entry in any books, public or private, or any memorandum so far as such entry or memorandum merely refers to and tends to identify by name, description, number, or otherwise, any bank-Notes or other securities for the payment of money, or other property, and the payer in or receiver of them shall, in any case, where such identification is necessary to be proved, be prima facie proof for that limited purpose, if it shall be proved to have been made at or about the time of the transaction to which it relates, and without any interest in falsifying the description of such notes, securities or property, though the person who made it or he on whose information it was made is alive and capable of being produced as a witness.

34. Certificates of shares and of registration thereof, bills of lading, invoices, account sales, receipts usually given on the payment or deposit, or delivery of money, receipts usually given on the delivery of any goods, chattels, securities, letters, papers or other things, provided such receipts be proved to have been given in the ordinary course of business, and concurrently with or near to the time of the receipt which they evidence, warrants, orders or other documents evidencing the title to goods deposited in any public warehouse, public dock, or other such public place, shall be on proof that they were respectively given out or received as genuine, and without proof of handwriting or authority, be received as sufficient prima facie evidence of the matters which they evidence, as well between the parties to the transaction as between other parties.

35. A witness whose memory requires to be refreshed, and who desires to refer before such Court, or before any such person as aforesaid, to any document for that purpose, shall be permitted to refresh it from any book, document or writing or inscription, whether such book, document, writing or inscription be an original or only a copy or extract, and whether that from which he refreshes his memory, or that from which it may have been taken, be of his own making or not, and whether it has or has not been in any manner made under his inspection or control.

36. And whereas in many instances, statements, charges and complaints are received as evidence, so far only that it is competent to prove in certain cases, that a statement, or charge, or a complaint was made, but the particulars of the statement, charge or complaint are not permitted to be given in evidence; it is enacted that in all such cases the particulars shall be allowed to be received in evidence, and may be acted on as corroborative proof, but not in themselves as sufficient proof of the facts embodied in such complaint, charge or statement, respectively.

37. The declarations in cases of pedigree of members of a family who were illegitimate and are deceased, and also of persons who, though not related by blood or marriage to the family, were intimately acquainted with its members and state, shall be admissible in evidence of their decease, in the same manner and to the same extent as those of deceased members of the family.

38. When hearsay evidence is admissible on subjects of public right, it shall extend to declarations of particular acts done in assertion or derogation of, or inconsistent with the right, and to declarations of particular facts which tend to prove or disprove the right.

39. When a will is disputed on any ground which supposes that the will does not describe correctly the intended and free and intelligent disposition of a Testator, evidence may be received of the Testator's declarations as to his intentions, or actual disposition, provided it be proved that they were made about the time or subsequent to the time of making the will.

40. On an inquiry, whether a signature, or writing, or seal, is genuine, any undisputed signature, writing or seal of the party, whose signature, writing or seal is under dispute, may be compared with the disputed one, though such signature, writing or seal be on an instrument which is not, and cannot be, for general or for other purposes, evidence in the cause.

41. And whereas the proof of the execution of powers of attorney is often attended with difficulty and expense, where they are executed at places remote from that of trial, and whereas the proof of the despatch of letters is often attained with much difficulty, and the law of evidence may with advantage be altered and rendered less strict as to such matters, it is hereby enacted that any power of attorney, which has been executed at a place distant more than 100 miles from the place wherein the action, suit or proceeding is depending, may be proved by the production of it, without further proof, where it purports, on the face of it, to have been executed before a notary public, or any Court, Judge, or other public Officer, and such power of attorney may, where it does not purport, on the face of it, to have been so executed, be proved by producing it, and proving that it has been acted on, or remitted to be acted on by competent authority, and by proving the instructions as to it.

42. Where the instructions are contained in a letter or letters, the handwriting of which cannot, by reason of the absence of necessary witnesses, be proved, still if such letters are proved to be genuine, according to the best of the knowledge and belief of a witness having reasonable grounds for his opinion, they may be received as sufficient proof of such instructions. In all the cases aforesaid, the witness or witnesses must depose that he or they believes or believe the instrument to be genuine and authorized, and that it has not been revoked.

43. Whenever it is proved that a letter-book is kept, and that according to the usual course of business, letters are copied into such book and despatched, and the letter-book is produced, and it is proved that the letter was

Entries evidence for the limited purpose of identification.

Various mercantile documents made prima facie evidence of what they purport to prove.

The evidence of declarations on questions of public right extended as to proof of particular facts.

Evidence of a testator's intentions admissible in certain cases where it is not now admissible.

Comparison of hand writing allowed, though the document be not evidence in itself.

Powers of attorney may be proved by their production without further proof in certain cases.

The accompanying letter of instructions may be proved without proof of handwriting, by evidence and belief that the letter is genuine.

Letters may be proved by production of the letter-book and reasonable evidence of the probable despatch of the letter.

despatched according to the usual practice, to the best of the knowledge and belief of the witness, having reasonable ground for forming that belief, the Court may presume the despatch of that letter according to the usual course of business.

44. Any peon's-book or other book purporting to contain a receipt of a letter, and proved to have been kept as a book for marking the receipt of letters, shall also be sufficient prima facie proof that such letter was received.

45. If the letter be described in such book, it shall be also prima facie proof of the identity of the letter.

46. If the book do not describe the letter, still the identity of the letter may be inferred from circumstances.

47. And whereas by the Act XV. of 1852, Section 6, a power was given in any action or other legal proceeding pending in any of Her Majesty's said Supreme Courts, for such Court, and each of the Judges thereof respectively, on application for such purpose by either of the litigants, to compel the opposite party to allow the party making the application to inspect all documents in the custody of, or under the control of such opposite party, relating to such action or other legal proceeding, and if necessary to take examined copies of the same, or to procure the same to be duly stamped in all cases in which, previous to the passing of that Act, a discovery might have been obtained by filing a Bill, or by any other proceeding in a Court of Equity, at the instance of the party so making application as aforesaid to the said Court or Judge, provided always that every such application should be made as aforesaid before issue joined in any such action, and twenty-one days before the trial or hearing of any other legal proceeding.

48. And whereas the preceding proviso has been found inconvenient, it is therefore hereby repealed, and it shall be lawful for the Court or Judge to grant any such inspection at any time before the trial or hearing, provided a proper case be made out for granting the same, and the application has been made under the circumstances of the case without any unreasonable delay, and in any case where the Court or Judge shall think fit to grant such inspection, such terms may be imposed as to payment of costs or otherwise, as may be expedient and just.

49. And whereas by the 16th Section of the Act VI. of 1854, it is provided that affidavits of particular witnesses, or affidavits as to particular facts or circumstances, may, by consent of the parties, or by leave of the Court obtained upon notice, be used in the hearing of any cause, and the same enactment is limited to proceedings on the Equity side of such Supreme Court; it is therefore enacted that the same shall extend to all Civil actions, suits and proceedings on all sides of the Court.

50. And whereas by the 17th Section of the same Act, it is provided that upon the hearing of any suit depending in any of the said Supreme Courts, whether commenced by Bill or Claim, and also upon the hearing of any motion, petition or other proceeding in any of the said Courts, the Court may, upon the application of any of the parties thereto, or of its own accord, require and enforce the attendance and oral examination before itself of any witness or of any party to the suit, and may also require and enforce the production of any document or documents, and may direct the costs of the attendance and examination of such witness or party to be paid by such of the parties to the suit, or in such manner as it may think fit, and it is desirable to extend this provision to all sides of the Court; it is therefore enacted that the said provisions shall extend to all sides of the Court, but that they shall not authorize or empower the Court to direct the examination of any accused person at the trial for any purpose, but shall extend only to authorize his examination as to collateral matters arising on matter unconnected with the question of his guilt or innocence.

51. And it is further enacted that the 33rd Section of the said Act No. VI. of 1854, which applies only to proof of accounts on the Equity side of the Court, shall extend to and embrace all accounts directed to be taken on any side of the said Court.

52. And whereas it is desirable to extend to this country certain of the provisions of the Act 8 and 9 Victoria, Cap. 113, entitled "An Act to facilitate the admission in evidence of certain official and other documents;" it is therefore enacted that whenever, by any Statute or Act, Regulation or Ordinance now in force, or any Statute or Act to be hereinafter in force, any certificate, certified copy, or other document shall be receivable in evidence of any particular, in any Court of Justice, the same, if it is substantially in the form and purports to be executed in the manner directed by the Statute, Act, Regulation or Ordinance which makes it evidence, shall be prima facie evidence where it is rendered admissible without proof of any seal, stamp, signature, character or authority, which it is directed to have, or from which it is directed to proceed.

53. The provisions in this Act contained shall apply to extend, but not to restrict the law and practice of the Courts of the East India Company or other Courts as to the reception of evidence. In no Court shall the improper admission or rejection of evidence be ground of itself for a new trial or reversal of any decision in any case, if it shall appear to the Court before which such objection is raised, that independently of the evidence admitted and objected to, there was sufficient evidence to justify the decision, or that if the rejected evidence had been received, it ought not to have varied the decision.

It shall not be necessary for any person producing a deed so acknowledged in any Court of Justice, to prove the hand-writing or authority of the Judge or other Officer, or the Commissioner taking such acknowledgment, but if such memorandum purports to have been in substance regularly made and signed, the deed shall be presumed to have been duly acknowledged by the party, until the contrary is shown.

8. If the husband of any married woman, desirous of passing or destroying any estate, interest or power, by a deed to be acknowledged by her under this Act, shall be a lunatic, idiot, or of unsound mind, whether he shall have been found such by inquisition or not, or from any other cause, shall be incapable of executing a deed, or if his residence shall not be known, or if he shall be in prison, or living apart from his wife, either by mutual consent or by sentence of divorce, or in consequence of his being transported beyond the seas, or from any other cause whatever, it shall be lawful for any of Her Majesty's Courts, by an order to be made in a summary way upon the application of such married woman, and upon such evidence as to the Court shall seem meet to dispense with the concurrence of her husband in the deed so to be acknowledged, and any deed to be executed or acknowledged by her in pursuance of such order shall, (but without prejudice to the rights of her husband as then existing, independently of this Act,) be as valid and effectual as if he had concurred therein.

9. Nothing in this Act contained shall abridge, extend, or affect the powers of alienation or disposition, which any married woman might have exercised over any property or rights, otherwise than by levying a fine or suffering a recovery, or by joining in one of such assurances before the passing of this Act.

10. Every tenant in tail or owner of an estate in inheritance less than an estate in fee simple, either at law or in equity, in any lands or hereditaments not being under any disability, shall have power to dispose of such lands and hereditaments against all persons whose estates are to take effect after the determination or in defeazance of his own, or to enlarge his said estate into an estate in fee simple absolute by any deed declaring an intention so to dispose of the said lands or hereditaments, or to enlarge his estate therein; and every tenant in tail or person possessed of an estate in inheritance less than an estate in fee simple absolute, who shall be under the disability of coverture, shall have power to dispose of or enlarge her said estate by any deed, declaring her intention so to do, and acknowledged by her before a Judge or other public Officer or a Commissioner under this Act; provided that every disposition under this Section shall be subject to the rights of all persons in respect of estates prior to the estate tail or other estate of inheritance, which is the subject of such disposition; and the rights of all other persons, except those against whom such disposition is by this Act authorized to be made.

11. The provisions of the last preceding Section shall, so far as circumstances will admit, apply to money subject to be invested in lands to be settled, so that any person, if the lands were purchased, would have an estate tail therein.

12. In any deed or will executed after this Act comes into operation, and disposing of immoveable property situate in India, wherein contingent estates are limited without the appointment of any trustees to preserve such contingent estates, the same shall be, to all intents and purposes, as effectually protected by the law, as if such trustees had been duly appointed.

13. Any estate or interest in immoveable property, situate in India, whether in possession, remainder or reversion, may, in addition to any other mode of conveyance or release, which is now valid, be conveyed, passed or released, by a simple deed expressing such intention, and with apt words to effect it, whether such deed operate under the Statute of uses or not.

14. No conveyance of any kind shall operate to destroy, impair, or affect any estate or interests which the conveying party has no legal right to destroy, impair or affect, or beyond the extent to which he may impair or affect the same.

15. No release executed after the time when this Act comes into operation shall operate so as to release more than the right of the releasing party, provided that this shall not extend to the release by one or more members less than the whole of any commercial or trading partnership of any debt, claim, or right of action, which it would be within the scope of the ordinary authority of a partner in such firm to release.

16. From the time this Act comes into operation, it shall not be necessary in any deed to be executed after such time, as to immoveable property situate in India, to add words of limitation to heirs, when the intention is to give the absolute interest to a person and his heirs general, but a gift, grant, or other conveyance of immoveable property to, or in favor of any person, shall be taken to give him the entire and absolute interest in the nature of an estate in fee simple, unless such construction is rendered inadmissible by the other contents of the deed; and when in any deed, or will executed as aforesaid, any property is given to a person for life or for other freehold interest, and afterwards in the same deed, or will, is limited to his heirs or heir special, the estates shall not unite, but the limitation to the heirs shall be a limitation of an estate to be taken by the heirs by purchase; and it shall descend as if such estates had united.

17. When any property is sold, the proceeds of which are subject to any trust, the bona-fide purchaser of the property shall not in any case be bound to see to the application of the purchase-money to the purposes of the trust.

18. Nothing in this Act contained shall extend to any case to which the English Law is not applicable.

Legislative Council.

22nd July 1854.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 22nd of July 1854:

A Bill for making better provision for the education of male Minors, subject to the superintendence of the Court of Wards.

1. The general superintendence and control of the education of every male minor, whose property has been or shall be brought under the management of the Court of Wards, in and for any part of the Presidency of Fort William, by virtue of any Act or Regulation which now is or hereafter shall be in force, is hereby vested in the Collector of Revenue, acting under the said Court of Wards in the zillah or district, wherein the principal portion of such minor's estate is situate.

II. It shall be lawful for every Collector of Revenue, in whom the superintendence of the education of any minor is vested by this Act, to direct that such minor shall reside either with or without his guardian at the sudder station of the district, or at any other place either within or beyond the limits of the district, and shall attend, for the purposes of education, such school or college as to the said Collector may seem expedient; and to make such provision as may be necessary for the proper care and suitable maintenance of the said minor whilst attending such school or college.

III. If it shall appear to the Collector inexpedient to place any such minor at a school or college, he shall cause such minor to be educated by a private tutor, properly qualified, either at the family residence of such minor, or at the sudder station or elsewhere, and in that case also the Collector shall have power to determine from time to time the place of residence of such minor, and to make such provision as may be necessary for his proper tuition and maintenance during the period of his education.

IV. All charges and expenses which may be incurred on account of any male minor ward under the provisions of this Act, for college or school fees, or for other charges of tuition or education, or by reason of his residence in any place other than his own home or otherwise, shall be defrayed from the profits of his estate in the same manner as other expenses incurred, under the authority or with the sanction of the Court of Wards.

V. It shall be lawful for the Court of Wards, on the application of a Collector, to remove from office any guardian who shall neglect or refuse to obey, or shall evade compliance with any orders passed, or directions given by such Collector under the provisions of this Act, and to cause a new guardian to be appointed in his place, whether the person so removed shall have been first invested with the guardianship of the minor upon the nomination of a Collector acting under the Court of Wards, or by a testamentary appointment confirmed by the Court of Wards, and if in any such case the guardian to be removed, shall be also the manager of the minor's estate, it shall be lawful for the Court of Wards, at its discretion, either to remove him from both the said offices, or to continue him in that of manager only.

VI. The guardian so removed shall, notwithstanding his removal, continue liable to account to the Collector for his receipts and disbursements during the period of his guardianship; and every guardian appointed in the place of a guardian so removed, shall be chosen in the same way, and shall have the same rights and powers, and be subject to the same responsibilities as persons originally appointed to be guardians of minors by a Collector of Revenue acting under the Court of Wards.

VII. If a question shall arise in any Court of Justice within the territories of the East India Company touching the right to the custody of the person of any male minor whose property is under the management of the Court of Wards, the person appointed with the sanction of the Court of Wards, either originally or upon the removal of a former guardian, to be the guardian of such minor, or in the absence of any such person, the Collector of Revenue having the superintendence of the education of such minor under the provisions of this Act, shall have and be deemed entitled to the same rights and powers as would be possessed by a guardian appointed by a Court of Justice of competent jurisdiction.

VIII. All orders and proceedings of a Collector under the provisions of this Act shall be subject to the revision of the Court of Wards, and every person aggrieved by any such order or proceeding may prefer an appeal therefrom to the Commissioner of Revenue acting as a Court of Wards in and for the division to which such Collector belongs.

Rule 2. The Chief Engineers shall estimate monthly the probable requirements of the Executive Officers subordinate to them, for all purposes of their respective divisions, and in accordance with such estimate, issue monthly assignments on the local treasuries in the accompanying Form No. 1.

Rule 3. The assignments shall be issued in regular serial numbers on each treasury, and advice of each assignment shall be forwarded simultaneously to the treasury concerned.

Rule 4. On the last day of each month, the Chief Engineers shall transmit a statement in the accompanying Form No. 2, of the assignments issued by them during that month to the Accountants to the Governments to which they may respectively be attached, accompanied by an estimate in a similar form of their probable requirements during the following month.

Rangoon Post Office Notice.

LETTERS and Newspapers, which should be addressed to RANGOON only, are frequently directed by mistake to Pegu or Burmah, and letters, &c. intended for delivery in Pegu, Prome, Bassien and other places in the Provinces, are in like manner erroneously addressed to "Rangoon, Burmah." The Rangoon Post Master begs to notify that, with such vague directions, this Department is left to find out to which of the Stations such letters should be forwarded, and from want of information, great disappointment is felt when they are despatched to the wrong Station. To obviate this, it is desirable, that parties posting letters in Calcutta or elsewhere, should be careful to direct them to their respective Stations, and to inform their Agents and Correspondents, when leaving one place for another, of their change of address, to ensure letters being directed to the proper Station. A list of places in the Pegu Provinces or in Burmah, and their distance from Rangoon, is annexed below, viz.:

Donabew,	40 miles
Pegu,	55 "
Sittang,	67 "
Shoaygyeen,	90 "
Bassein,	95 "
Henzada,	95 "
Tonghoo,	130 "
Monean,	120 "
Thayetmyo,	200 "

Namean,	195 miles.
Prome,	200 "
Yeagheen,	160 "
Tapoon,	"
Tindan,	"
Tayngheen,	"
Yandoon,	"

Below Prome.

Letters addressed to public functionaries, whose head-quarters or residence is in Rangoon, should be addressed "Rangoon," instead of Pegu or Burmah; but if intended for delivery at other Stations, should be addressed to those Stations, the word Rangoon to be omitted.

Legislative Council.

21st July 1854.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India on the 21st July 1854, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XV. OF 1854.

An Act to facilitate the proceedings of the Commissioners appointed to inquire into certain matters connected with the position of Sir James Brooke, Her Majesty's Commissioner and Consul General in Borneo.

Whereas the Governor General of India in Council has, by a Commission bearing date the seventh day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand Eight hundred and Fifty-four, nominated and appointed Charles Robert Prinsep, Esq., Barrister-at-Law and Advocate-General of Fort William in Bengal, and the Hon'ble Humphrey Bohun Devereux, in the Civil Service of the East India Company on their Bengal Establishment, to inquire into certain matters connected with and arising out of the position of Sir James Brooke, Her Majesty's Commissioner and Consul General in Borneo; and whereas it is expedient that the Commissioners aforesaid should be invested with certain legal powers within the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company, It is enacted as follows :

I. Each of the said Commissioners shall, before beginning to act in the execution of the Commission aforesaid, take and subscribe, before one of the Judges of Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature, at Fort William in Bengal, the following oath, that is to say :—

" I do swear, that I will truly and faithfully, according to the best of my knowledge and judgment, execute the powers and trusts vested in me by the Governor General of India in Council, by a Commission bearing date the Seventh day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand Eight hundred and Fifty-four, and by Act No. XV. of 1854. So help me God."

And the Judge of the Supreme Court, before whom such oath shall be taken, shall transmit the same to the Secretary to the Government of India in the Foreign Department, to be filed among the records of his office.

II. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners aforesaid, by a summons under their hands, or under the hand of either of them, to require the attendance before them, at a time and place to be mentioned in such summons, of any person or persons whomsoever, residing or being within the Jurisdiction of the Court of Judicature of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca, whose evidence shall, in the judgment of the Commissioners aforesaid, be material to any of the matters directed by the Governor General of India in Council to be enquired of, and to require the person or persons so summoned to bring and produce before them all such books, papers, deeds and writings, as to them, the said Commissioners, shall appear necessary for arriving at the truth of the matters directed to be enquired into by the said Commissioners, all which persons shall accordingly attend the said Commissioners and shall produce such books, papers, deeds and writings as shall be required of them and shall be in their custody and control, or in the custody and control of any one of them, according to the tenor of the summons. Provided always that no person shall be compellable to answer any question or to produce any book, paper, deed or writing, the answer to which, or the production of which, may criminate or tend to criminate such person, or to expose such person to any pains or penalties.

III. And whereas it may appear to the Commissioners aforesaid desirable to examine as witnesses several persons touching the matters directed to be enquired into, the evidence of which persons may tend to expose them to penal consequences, every person who shall be examined as a witness and give evidence before the Commissioners aforesaid touching the matters in question, and who shall, upon such examination, make a true discovery to the best of his knowledge touching all matters to which he or she shall be so examined, shall be freed from all penal actions, forfeitures, punishments, disabilities and incapacities and all criminal prosecutions to which he or she may have been, or may become, liable or subject within any part of the said territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company for any thing done by such person in respect of any acts relating to which he shall be examined. Provided that where any witness shall be so examined as aforesaid, such witness shall not be indemnified under this Act, unless or until he or she shall receive from the Commissioners aforesaid, under their hands, a certificate in writing, stating that such witness has upon his or her examination made a true disclosure touching all matters to which he or she has been so examined.

IV. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners aforesaid, or one of them, to administer an oath, or in the case of persons allowed by law to make affirmation instead of taking an oath, an affirmation, in such form as to them, the said Commissioners, shall seem fit, to all persons who shall be examined before them touching the matters directed, or which may be directed to be enquired into, by them as aforesaid.

V. If any person, upon whom any such summons shall be served by the delivery thereof to him or her, or by the leaving thereof at his or her usual place of abode, being a person subject to the Court of Judicature of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore or Malacca, shall, without reasonable cause (to be allowed by the Commissioners aforesaid,) fail to appear before them at the time and place mentioned in the summons, or shall refuse to be sworn or to make affirmation (as the case may be,) or shall not make answer to such questions as shall be put to him or her touching the matters directed, or which may hereafter be directed, to be enquired into by the Commissioners aforesaid, or shall refuse or fail, without reasonable cause (to be allowed by the Commissioners aforesaid,) to produce and show to the said Commissioners any such paper, book, deed or writing being in their possession or under their control, as to the Commissioners aforesaid shall appear necessary for arriving at the truth of the matters directed to be inquired into by them, the Commissioners aforesaid shall have the same powers in all respects touching any such person so failing to appear, or refusing to be sworn or to make affirmation, or not answering such questions as shall be put to him or her, or refusing to produce and show any such book, paper, deed, or writing as aforesaid, as the Court of Judicature of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca may by law exercise against any person for making default of appearance, or for refusing to be sworn or to give evidence on any issue joined in any action depending in such Court.

VI. Every person, who, upon examination upon oath, or affirmation before the Commissioners aforesaid, shall wilfully give false evidence, shall be liable to the pains and penalties of perjury.

VII. No action shall be brought against the Commissioners aforesaid, or any other person or persons whomsoever, for anything done in the execution of this Act, unless such action shall be brought within six calendar months next after the doing of such thing.

VIII. In case of the death or resignation of either of the said Commissioners, or in the event of either of them becoming incapable of acting, it shall be lawful for the other Commissioner to act alone; and every part of this Act shall be deemed to apply to such Commissioner as if he alone had been mentioned herein.

When an original document is out of the reach of the process of the Court, or at a distance, secondary evidence may be received on application for that purpose.

31. In any case where such entry is admissible, it shall be admissible, although it appear that the party who made it had not himself personal knowledge of the matter to which such entry relates, provided it appear that he acted in making it on the personal knowledge, whether directly conveyed to him or not, of some person whose business it was to do the thing or give the information which the entry records.

32. In all cases where hearsay evidence is received in the shape of a declaration or entry, on the ground that it was made against the interest of the party making it, it shall be admissible in evidence, though the party who made it is alive and is capable of being produced and of giving testimony as a witness.

33. Any entry in any books, public or private, or any memorandum so far as such entry or memorandum merely refers to and tends to identify by name, description, number, or otherwise, any bank-notes or other securities for the payment of money, or other property, and the payer in or receiver of them shall, in any case, where such identification is necessary to be proved, be prima facie proof for that limited purpose, if it shall be proved to have been made at or about the time of the transaction to which it relates, and without any interest in falsifying the description of such notes, securities or property, though the person who made it or he on whose information it was made is alive and capable of being produced as a witness.

34. Certificates of shares and of registration thereof, bills of lading, invoices, account sales, receipts usually given on the payment or deposit, or delivery of money, receipts usually given on the delivery of any goods, chattels, securities, letters, papers or other things, provided such receipts be proved to have been given in the ordinary course of business, and concurrently with or near to the time of the receipt which they evidence, warrants, orders or other documents evidencing the title to goods deposited in any public warehouse, public dock, or other such public place, shall be on proof that they were respectively given out or received as genuine, and without proof of handwriting or authority, be received as sufficient prima facie evidence of the matters which they evidence, as well between the parties to the transaction as between other parties.

35. A witness whose memory requires to be refreshed, and who desires to refer before such Court, or before any such person as aforesaid, to any document for that purpose, shall be permitted to refresh it from any book, document or writing or inscription, whether such book, document, writing or inscription be an original or only a copy or extract, and whether that from which he refreshes his memory, or that from which it may have been taken, be of his own making or not, and whether it has or has not been in any manner made under his inspection or control.

36. And whereas in many instances, statements, charges and complaints are received as evidence, so far only that it is competent to prove in certain cases, that a statement, or charge, or a complaint was made, but the particulars of the statement, charge or complaint are not permitted to be given in evidence; it is enacted that in all such cases the particulars shall be allowed to be received in evidence, and may be acted on as corroborative proof, but not in themselves as sufficient proof of the facts embodied in such complaint, charge or statement, respectively.

37. The declarations in cases of pedigree of members of a family who were illegitimate and are deceased, and also of persons who, though not related by blood or marriage to the family, were intimately acquainted with its members and state, shall be admissible in evidence of their decease, in the same manner and to the same extent as those of deceased members of the family.

38. When hearsay evidence is admissible on subjects of public right, it shall extend to declarations of particular acts done in assertion or derogation of, or inconsistent with the right, and to declarations of particular facts which tend to prove or disprove the right.

39. When a will is disputed on any ground which supposes that the will does not describe correctly the intended and free and intelligent disposition of a Testator, evidence may be received of the Testator's declarations as to his intentions, or actual disposition, provided it be proved that they were made about the time or subsequent to the time of making the will.

40. On an inquiry, whether a signature, or writing, or seal, is genuine, any undisputed signature, writing or seal of the party, whose signature, writing or seal is under dispute, may be compared with the disputed one, though such signature, writing or seal be on an instrument which is not, and cannot be, for general or for other purposes, evidence in the cause.

In all the cases aforesaid, the witness or witnesses must depose that he or they believes or believe the instrument to be genuine and authorized, and that it has not been revoked.

44. Any peon's-book or other book purporting tion 6, a power was given in any action or other legal proceeding pending in any of Her Majesty's said Supreme Courts, for such Court, and each of the Judges thereof respectively, on application for such purpose by either of the litigants, to compel the opposite party to allow the party making the application to inspect all documents in the custody of, or under the control of such opposite party, relating to such action or other legal proceeding, and if necessary to take examined copies of the same, or to procure the same to be duly stamped in all cases in which, previous to the passing of that Act, a discovery might have been obtained by filing a Bill, or by any other proceeding in a Court of Equity, at the instance of the party so making application as aforesaid to the said Court or Judge, provided always that every such application should be made as aforesaid before issue joined in any such action, and twenty-one days before the trial or hearing of any other legal proceeding.

48. And whereas the preceding proviso has been found inconvenient, it is therefore hereby repealed, and it shall be lawful for the Court or Judge to grant any such inspection at any time before the trial or hearing, provided a proper case be made out for granting the same, and the application has been made under the circumstances of the case without any unreasonable delay, and in any case where the Court or Judge shall think fit to grant such inspection, such terms may be imposed as to payment of costs or otherwise, as may be expedient and just.

49. And whereas by the 16th Section of the Act VI. of 1854, it is provided that affidavits of particular witnesses, or affidavits as to particular facts or circumstances, may, by consent of the parties, or by leave of the Court obtained upon notice, be used in the hearing of any cause, and the same enactment is limited to proceedings on the Equity side of such Supreme Court; it is therefore enacted that the same shall extend to all Civil actions, suits and proceedings on all sides of the Court.

50. And whereas by the 17th Section of the Provisions of the 17th Section of the said Act extended to all sides of the Court. Limitation thereon, as to Crown side.

same Act, it is provided that upon the hearing of any suit depending in any of the said Supreme Courts, whether commenced by Bill or Claim, and also upon the hearing of any motion, petition or other proceeding in any of the said Courts, the Court may, upon the application of any of the parties thereto, or of its own accord, require and enforce the attendance and oral examination before itself of any witness or of any party to the suit, and may also require and enforce the production of any document or documents, and may direct the costs of the attendance and examination of such witness or party to be paid by such of the parties to the suit, or in such manner as it may think fit, and it is desirable to extend this provision to all sides of the Court; it is therefore enacted that the said provisions shall extend to all sides of the Court, but that they shall not authorize or empower the Court to direct the examination of any accused person at the trial for any purpose, but shall extend only to authorize his examination as to collateral matters arising on matter unconnected with the question of his guilt or innocence.

51. And it is further enacted that the 33rd

Provisions of the 33rd Section of the said Act as to accounts extended to all sides of the Court.

Section of the said Act No. VI. of 1854, which applies only to proof of accounts on the Equity side of the Court, shall extend to and embrace all accounts directed to be taken on any side of the said Court.

52. And whereas it is desirable to extend to this country certain of the provisions of the Act 8 and 9 Victoria, Cap. 113, entitled "An Act to facilitate the admission in evidence of certain official and other documents;" it is therefore enacted that whenever, by any Statute or Act, Regulation or Ordinance now in force, or any Statute or Act to be hereinafter in force, any certificate, certified copy, or other document shall be receivable in evidence of any particular, in any Court of Justice, the same, if it is substantially in the form and purports to be executed in the manner directed by the Statute, Act, Regulation or Ordinance which makes it evidence, shall be prima facie evidence where it is rendered admissible without proof of any seal, stamp, signature, character or authority, which it is directed to have, or from which it is directed to proceed.

53. The provisions in this Act contained shall apply to extend, but not to restrict the law and practice of the Courts of the East India Company or other Courts as to the reception of evidence. In no Court shall the improper admission or rejection of evidence be ground of itself for a new trial or reversal of any decision in any case, if it shall appear to the Court before which such objection is raised, that independently of the evidence admitted and objected to, there was sufficient evidence to justify the decision, or that if the rejected evidence had been received, it ought not to have varied the decision.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Legislative Council.

Legislative Council.

22nd July 1853.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 22nd of July 1854.

A Bill to abolish real actions, including fines and common recoveries, and to simplify the modes of conveying land in cases to which the English Law is applicable.

Preamble.—Whereas it is expedient in cases to which the English law applies to abolish real actions including fines and common recoveries and to simplify the modes of conveying land and to exempt the purchasers of trust property from the liability to see to the application of the purchase money, it is enacted as follows:—

1. All real actions, including fines and common recoveries, are abolished, except such as may be pending when this Act comes into operation.

2. Every married woman who, either alone, or jointly with her husband, is possessed of, or entitled to any estate or interest in, or any power to be exercised over, any lands or hereditaments, or money subject to be invested in lands or other hereditaments which, before the passing of this Act, she might have disposed of, released, surrendered or extinguished by levying a fine, or suffering a recovery, or by joining in either of such assurances, shall have power by deed to dispose of, release, surrender or extinguish any such estate, interest or power, as fully and effectually as if she were an unmarried woman, save only that such disposition, release, surrender or extinguishment shall not be valid and effectual, unless her husband concur in the deed by which the same shall be effected nor unless the deed be acknowledged in manner hereinafter prescribed before a Judge of one of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts, or before a Judge, Magistrate, or other Covenanted Officer of the East India Company, exercising civil jurisdiction in the place wherein such deed shall be acknowledged, or before some Commissioner or Commissioners appointed either specially, for the occasion, or appointed as a permanent Commissioner by one of Her Majesty's said Courts to take such acknowledgments.

3. It shall be lawful for any of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts said Courts to appoint, by its order under the seal of the Court, to be published in the Government Gazette of that Presidency, permanent Commissioners, either by name or office, and to appoint from time to time, under special Commissions, Special Commissioners, any one of whom shall be authorized and empowered, unless the Act is directed to be done before more than one, to take the acknowledgment of any deed by any married woman who, by reason of her place of residence, or ill-health, or other sufficient cause, shall be unable to make such acknowledgment before one of the Judges or other public Officers described in the preceding Section.

4. Every such Judge or public Officer or Commissioner as aforesaid, before he shall receive the acknowledgment by any married woman of any deed to be acknowledged by her, under this Act, shall examine her apart from her husband, touching her knowledge of such deed, and shall ascertain whether she understands its object, and freely and voluntarily consents to the same, and unless she appears to understand its object, and freely and voluntarily to consent to such deed, he shall not permit her to acknowledge the same, and in such case, such deed, so far as relates to the execution thereof by such married woman, shall be void.

5. Every Judge, public Officer or Commissioner, taking such acknowledgment under this Act, shall at the time of taking the same, sign a memorandum to be endorsed on or written at the foot, or in the margin of such deed, which memorandum shall be to the following effect, viz., "this deed marked ( ) was this day produced before me and acknowledged by therein named, to be her act and deed, previous to which acknowledgment the said was examined by me separately and apart from her husband, touching her knowledge of the contents of the said deed, and her consent thereto and appeared to understand the same, and declared the same to be freely and voluntarily executed by her."

6. The deed so acknowledged shall take effect from the date of acknowledgment thereof.

7. It shall not be necessary for any person producing a deed so acknowledged in any Court of Justice, to prove the hand-writing or authority of the Judge or other Officer, or the Commissioner taking such acknowledgment, but if such memorandum purports to have been in substance regularly made and signed, the deed shall be presumed to have been duly acknowledged by the party, until the contrary is shown.

8. If the husband of any married woman, desirous of passing or destroying any estate, interest or power, by a deed to be acknowledged by her under this Act, shall be a lunatic, idiot, or of unsound mind, whether he shall have been found such by inquisition or not, or from any other cause, shall be incapable of executing a deed, or if his residence shall not be known, or if he shall be in prison, or living apart from his wife, either by mutual consent or by sentence of divorce, or in consequence of his being transported beyond the seas, or from any other cause whatever, it shall be lawful for any of Her Majesty's Courts, by an order to be made in a summary way upon the application of such married woman, and upon such evidence as to the Court shall seem meet to dispense with the concurrence of her husband in the deed so to be acknowledged, and any deed to be executed or acknowledged by her in pursuance of such order shall, (but without prejudice to the rights of her husband as then existing, independently of this Act,) be as valid and effectual as if he had concurred therein.

9. Nothing in this Act contained shall abridge, extend, or affect the powers of alienation or disposition, which any married woman might have exercised over any property or rights, otherwise than by levying a fine or suffering a recovery, or by joining in one of such assurances before the passing of this Act.

10. Every tenant in tail or owner of an estate in inheritance less than an estate in fee simple, either at law or in equity, in any lands or hereditaments not being under any disability, shall have power to dispose of such lands and hereditaments against all persons whose estates are to take effect after the determination or in defeazance of his own, or to enlarge his said estate into an estate in fee simple absolute by any deed declaring an intention so to dispose of the said lands or hereditaments, or to enlarge his estate therein; and every tenant in tail or person possessed of an estate in inheritance less than an estate in fee simple absolute, who shall be under the disability of coverture, shall have power to dispose of or enlarge her said estate by any deed, declaring her intention so to do, and acknowledged by her before a Judge or other public Officer or a Commissioner under this Act; provided that every disposition under this Section shall be subject to the rights of all persons in respect of estates prior to the estate tail or other estate of inheritance, which is the subject of such disposition; and the rights of all other persons, except those against whom such disposition is by this Act authorized to be made.

11. The provisions of the last preceding Section shall, so far as circumstances will admit, apply to money subject to be invested in lands to be settled, so that any person, if the lands were purchased, would have an estate tail therein.

12. In any deed or will executed after this Act comes into operation, and disposing of immoveable property situate in India, wherein contingent estates are limited without the appointment of any trustees to preserve such contingent estates, the same shall be, to all intents and purposes, as effectually protected by the law, as if such trustees had been duly appointed.

13. Any estate or interest in immoveable property, situate in India, whether in possession, remainder or reversion, may, in addition to any other mode of conveyance or release, which is now valid, be conveyed, passed or released, by a simple deed expressing such intention, and with apt words to effect it, whether such deed operate under the Statute of uses or not.

14. No conveyance of any kind shall operate to destroy, impair, or affect any estate or interests which the conveying party has no legal right to destroy, impair or affect, or beyond the extent to which he may impair or affect the same.

15. No release executed after the time when this Act comes into operation shall operate so as to release more than the right of the releasing party, provided that this shall not extend to the release by one or more members less than the whole of any commercial or trading partnership of any debt, claim, or right of action, which it would be within the scope of the ordinary authority of a partner in such firm to release.

16. From the time this Act comes into operation, it shall not be necessary in any deed to be executed after such time, as to immoveable property situate in India, to add words of limitation to heirs, when the intention is to give the absolute interest to a person and his heirs general, but a gift, grant, or other conveyance of immoveable property to, or in favor of any person, shall be taken to give him the entire and absolute interest in the nature of an estate in fee simple, unless such construction is rendered inadmissible by the other contents of the deed; and when in any deed, or will executed as aforesaid, any property is given to a person for life or for other freehold interest, and afterwards in the same deed, or will, is limited to his heirs or heir special, the estates shall not unite, but the limitation to the heirs shall be a limitation of an estate to be taken by the heirs by purchase; and it shall descend as if such estates had united.

17. When any property is sold, the proceeds of which are subject to any trust, the bona-fide purchaser of the property shall not in any case be bound to see to the application of the purchase-money to the purposes of the trust.

Bona-fide purchaser not required to see to application of trust-money in any case.

18. Nothing in this Act contained shall extend to any case to which the English Law is not applicable.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Legislative Council.

"The Meeting in January last referred to the Managers for re-consideration the propriety of

"the transfer of Rupees 82,947 from the Appropriated to the Unappropriated Fund in the Accounts then submitted. The Managers were also requested to bring forward a proposition for adopting the measures recommended by Mr. Neison. The transfer referred to was made under Rule 43, and in accordance with the intentions of the framers of the rules, thus expressed: "Your Committee recommend that these three Rules (42, 43, and 44) be at present made applicable only to those liabilities which will accrue under the proposed plan on and after the 1st January 1850." The suggestion made in Mr. Beadon's memorandum to transfer the sum to the 3rd column of the Appropriated Fund could not be acted upon, because that column represents a distinct account bearing interest at 8 per cent., and applicable to old pensions, whilst the sum in question was the excess in the value of new pensions, and belongs to another account, bearing interest in part at 4 per cent. This 4 per cent. account, indeed, is applicable exclusively to the wives and children of living Subscribers, whose pensions are therein assured to the extent of Rupees 4,36,066 (overlooked in Mr. Beadon's memo.) which is steadily increasing by the "additional" subscriptions of Subscribers, and no part of this account has ever been, or can be transferred to the account of old pensions."

"It was stated in the last Report that the capital of the Fund falls short of the present value of all the existing Annuities, by less than a lack of rupees, and that this deficiency is being gradually made up. It was also shown that the contingent liabilities are fully provided for, by the value of the assets upon the principle of calculations adopted by the Actuaries. In this state of the accounts, the managers did not feel justified in calling upon the Subscribers for increased contributions, and they continue of the same opinion. It is true that Mr. Neison made his calculations on the assumption, that a recommendation of certain Members of the Revising Committee, (which was rejected by the Meeting of the 30th March 1852,) had been adopted, and that the subscriptions were  $\frac{1}{2}$  per cent. higher than they really are; but he fell apparently into other misapprehensions, the general result of which was to decrease unduly the value of the assets and increase that of the liabilities. The Managers therefore prefer to base their estimate of the requirements of the Fund upon the actual progress made in raising the capital to an equality with the value of the existing annuities; and the sufficiency of the value of the annual income, calculated in the manner prescribed by the actuaries to provide for the contingent liabilities."

Proposed by Mr. Hamilton and seconded by Mr. Campbell,—That the report of the Managers be received and adopted, and their proceedings be approved.

Carried,

Messrs. H. B. Harington and A. R. Young were unanimously elected to fill the vacancies in the Management which have occurred since the date of the last General Meeting.

A vote of thanks was passed to the Chairman.

B. J. COLVIN,
Chairman.

Rangoon Post Office Notice.

LETTERS and Newspapers, which should be addressed to RANGOON only, are frequently directed by mistake to Pegu or Burmah, and letters, &c. intended for delivery in Pegu, Prome, Bassien and other places in the Provinces, are in like manner erroneously addressed to "Rangoon, Burmah." The Rangoon Post Master begs to notify that, with such vague directions, this Department is left to find out to which of the Stations such letters should be forwarded, and from want of information, great disappointment is felt when they are despatched to the wrong Station. To obviate this, it is desirable, that parties posting letters in Calcutta or elsewhere, should be careful to direct them to their respective Stations, and to inform their Agents and Correspondents, when leaving one place for another, of their change of address, to ensure letters being directed to the proper Station. A list of places in the Pegu Provinces or in Burmah, and their distance from Rangoon, is annexed below, viz. :

No. 793 of 1854.—In order to prevent undue delay on the part of Officers in embarking for Europe, on Medical certificate, the Most Noble the Governor General of India in Council is pleased to declare, that, in the event of an Officer not leaving India within two months from the announcement of his sick furlough in Government General Orders, if he belong to the Company's Service, or within two months of his arrival at the Presidency, with permission to proceed to Europe on Medical certificate, if he belong to the Royal Army, he will incur forfeiture of Indian Allowances of every description ; except when physical unfitness for a sea voyage shall have prevented his departure, in which case his Allowances will be continued to him, within the general limits of the Absentee Rules, for so long as the Medical Board shall pronounce it unsafe for him to embark on board ship.

2. This order does not dispense with the necessity for general leave to an Officer to visit the Presidency, preparatory to proceeding to Europe on Medical certificate ; nor does it imply that any Officer shall have his Regimental Allowances continued to him to the date of embarkation, who by availing himself of the period above allowed for that purpose, in addition to previous leave, shall, on the whole, have been continuously absent from duty more than six months on private affairs, or more than two years on Medical certificate.

Rangoon Post Office Notice.

LETTERS and Newspapers, which should be addressed to RANGOON only, are frequently directed by mistake to Pegu or Burmah, and letters, &c. intended for delivery in Pegu, Prome, Bassien and other places in the Provinces, are in like manner erroneously addressed to "Rangoon, Burmah." The Rangoon Post Master begs to notify that, with such vague directions, this Department is left to find out to which of the Stations such letters should be forwarded, and from want of information, great disappointment is felt when they are despatched to the wrong Station. To obviate this, it is desirable, that parties posting letters in Calcutta or elsewhere, should be careful to direct them to their respective Stations, and to inform their Agents and Correspondents, when leaving one place for another, of their change of address, to ensure letters being directed to the proper Station. A list of places in the Pegu Provinces or in Burmah, and their distance from Rangoon, is annexed below, viz.:

Letters addressed to public functionaries, whose head-quarters or residence is in Rangoon, should be addressed "Rangoon," instead of Pegu or Burmah; but if intended for delivery at other Stations, should be addressed to those Stations, the word Rangoon to be omitted.

A Bill to provide compensation to families, for loss occasioned by the death of a person, caused by actionable wrong.

I. It is enacted that whenever the death of a person shall be caused by wrongful act, neglect or default, and the act, neglect or default is such as would (if death had not ensued) have entitled the party injured to maintain an action and recover damages in respect thereof, then, and in every such case, the party who would have been liable, if death had not ensued, shall be liable to an action

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 5th of August 1854, and referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 9th of November 1854.

A Bill to improve the English Law in force in India, by extending to this Country, with some enlargement thereof, the provisions of Statute 3rd and 4th William 4th, Cap. 42, Section 2.

Whereas by the English Law in force in India, many actions for wrongs do not survive against the Executor or Administrator of the wrong-doer or in favor of the Executor or Administrator of the injured person, and it is desirable to extend to this country, with some enlargement thereof, certain provisions contained in a certain Act of Parliament, which has been passed for remedying these defects in the law, that is to say, the Statute 3rd and 4th William 4th, Cap. 42, Section 2; It is therefore enacted that

An action may be maintained by the Executors, Administrators or Representatives of any person deceased, for any wrong committed in the life-time of such person towards him, which has occasioned pecuniary loss to his estate, for which wrong an action might have been maintained by such person, but which, before the passing of this Act, would not have survived to his Representatives, so as such wrong or injury shall have been committed within one year, or have been without his neglect first known to him within one year before the death of such deceased person, and provided such action shall be brought within one year after the death of such person and the damages when recovered shall be part of the personal estate of such person; and further, an action may be maintained against the Executors, Administrators or Representatives of any person deceased for any such wrong committed by him in his life-time and which would not have survived against his Representatives, so as such injury shall have been committed within one year before such person's death and so as such action shall be brought within six calendar months after such Executors or Administrators shall have taken upon themselves the administration of the estate and effects of such person, and the damages to be recovered in such action shall be payable in like order of administration as the simple contract debts of such person. And when any action or suit has been commenced by the injured party in his life-time, it shall not abate by his death or be lost, whatever be its nature, but the Executors, Administrators or Representatives may continue it for the purpose of recovering the costs and expenses of suing, or any special or consequential or other loss or damage included in the action, which the injury has occasioned, or may occasion, to the estate of the deceased.

So much of Section 12 Regulation II. of 1793, of Section 12 Regulation V. 1795, of Section 11 Regulation XXV. of 1803, and of Section 18 Regulation VIII. of 1805 of the Bengal Code, as prescribe that all issues from the Treasuries of the Collectors shall be made under a Warrant signed by the Collector and sealed with the seal of the zillah, are hereby repealed, so far as the same relate to the payment of money in discharge of Bills of Exchange drawn upon the Collector as the disbursing Officer at such Treasuries.

Rangoon Post Office Notice.

LETTERS and Newspapers, which should be addressed to RANGOON only, are frequently directed by mistake to Pegu or Burmah, and letters, &c. intended for delivery in Pegu, Prome, Bassien and other places in the Provinces, are in like manner erroneously addressed to "Rangoon, Burmah." The Rangoon Post Master begs to notify that, with such vague directions, this Department is left to find out to which of the Stations such letters should be forwarded, and from want of information, great disappointment is felt when they are despatched to the wrong Station. To obviate this, it is desirable, that parties posting letters in Calcutta or elsewhere, should be careful to direct them to their respective Stations, and to inform their Agents and Correspondents, when leaving one place for another, of their change of address, to ensure letters being directed to the proper Station. A list of places in the Pegu Provinces or in Burmah, and their distance from Rangoon, is annexed below, viz.:

Donabew, .....	40 miles

Sittang, .....	67 "
Shoaygyeen, .....	90 "
